Multi-disciplinary visual artist working with painting, ceramics, sounds and large outdoor sculptures. My work has been featured in more than 15 solo shows and in group exhibitions across Miami, New York, and Puerto Rico, including both galleries and museums. Recent work explores the intersection of ecology, human fragility, and spiritual introspection through the lens of Still Life and magical realism, drawing inspiration from Surrealist René Magritte and the Dutch Vanitas tradition of the 17th century, creating a dialogue that bridges historical artistic practices with contemporary ecological concerns.
